

Safe Life Corp.
Corporate Fact Sheet

Company:	Safe Life Corp. (www.safelifecorp.com)
Description:	Safe Life is a company dedicated to developing novel, antimicrobial technologies, products and comfortable, breathable respirators.
Founded:	Founded in 2006 to acquire Triosyn Corporation and commercialize its antimicrobial technologies and products.
Technology:	The Safe Life Antimicrobial is an EPA-registered, solid antimicrobial based on iodine. Iodine has a nearly 200-year track record for being effective against a broad spectrum of dangerous microorganisms.
Applications:	The Safe Life Antimicrobial is a solid iodinated polymer that can be incorporated in a wide range of healthcare, industrial, military and consumer products.
Products:	Safe Life currently has three NIOSH-certified respirators: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Safe Life N95 Respirator with Antimicrobial Protection (A400 Series)• Safe Life P95 Respirator with Antimicrobial Protection (T5000 Series)• Safe Life P99 Respirator with Antimicrobial Protection (T6000 Series)
Customers:	Safe Life markets its respirators to a diverse group of users including nurses, doctors and other healthcare professionals, first responders, emergency workers, military personnel, government agencies, police, firefighters and civilians.
Capacity:	Safe Life is capable of producing more than 100 million respirators in 2010.
Executives:	Richard Jaffe – Chairman & CEO Pierre Jean Messier – Vice Chairman & Chief Scientific Officer JF LaRue – Chief Financial Officer Alberto Rego, Ph.D. – Vice President, RA/QA & Scientific Application Christie Huff – Vice President, Marketing Lynn Detlor – Vice President, Healthcare Business Development Benoit Sicotte – General Manager Research CM Lee – Vice President, Manufacturing
Employees:	90
Locations:	Headquartered in San Diego, Calif., with additional facilities in Williston, Vt., Mirabel QC, Canada and Ipoh, Malaysia.

#